REV. KOKENDOFFER RESIGNS.
Tendered His Resignation at Board Meeting Sunday Afternoon to Take Effect May First—Will go to Sedalia.
Rev. A. W. Kokendoffer, pastor of the Christian church, has resigned.
He tendered his resignation at the board meeting of the church Sunday afternoon to take effect May 1st, and will accept a call to the first Christian church at Sedalia, Mo.
Rev. Mr. Kokendoffer has been pastor of the Christian church at this place for seven years, having taken the pastorage here May 1st, 1901.
During these seven years, he has won a warm place in the heart of every one who has been given the pleasure of his acquaintance, and only of the Christian church, but of all the other denominations.
While it is regretted sincerely that such a man must leave our community, the best wish of the Mexico people go with him to his new field.

To the Voters of Andalus.
Precious friends, you upon whom so much of this work rests will not pray, work, and hope for the wisdom of the part of our people, for the time to come when the people will consider the licensed saloon as bad as human slavery, let us bury this traffic forever and make of this nation a light for the world. Retaining the liquor traffic for the sake of the revenue it produces is a political method that simply infamously.

The school houses we erect, the streets we pave and the water works we build with this money that drips with the very hearts' blood of the helpless will be looked upon by the coming generations as a monument of the nations chief sin and shame, the cruelty of a half-civilized people.

"We to him that buildeth a town with blood and establisheth a city by iniquity." We are told that this traffic should aid in bearing the burden of its own ravages. Oh! Christian friends how can it do this? How can it bear the burdens of the father and the mother when the son is brought home drunk, or shot or perhaps worse still himself a murderer? How can it bear the burdens of the wife who has her husband, who at the altar pledged their sacred vows that made them one, has become cruel, adden and inflicted on in whose every tender word, look and act has been envenomed? How can it bear the burdens of childhood starved, frozen, and unloved?
How can a few tainted dollars bear the burdens of the stricken ones?
Now in the name of suffering womanhood and childhood, in the name of enlarged manhood of God and country, let us down the saloons. Let us press forward in hope and put our trust in God. Our victory is in sight, if we do not start back. I pray that you will use the need of salvation, that may never have appeared upon you before.

There is enough in this victory for you and I, if there were not more than one hundred million more to be blessed.
Victory for all we know, at the last, may be achieved by the part that you and I have done. The thing for us to know is that we have done our part.
And when we have done this we may leave the rest with Christian Love.

Yours truly,
Mrs. Ella Shoup Willis.

Mexico Dentists
The Mexico dentists were royally entertained by Dr. Fry at Moberly Saturday "the Moberly Democrat" says:
Dr. W. L. Reed of Mexico read an interesting paper and copies of most importance to all dentists were then generally discussed.
The day taken as a whole was a big one for the dentists of Mexico and Moberly and Dr. Fry and the elaborate dinner served will never be forgotten by any who attended.

The following Mexico dentists were present: Dr. J. W. and W. L. Reed, Carl Pasquetti, Charles Dugas, J. F.
McWilliams and Kelly R. Bragg.

Fred Clapper Dead.
Fred Clapper, aged 67 years, a prominent farmer, of this county, died at his home northwest of this city, Monday night, of paralysis. Deceased has been in ill health for about a year.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two children, Chas. Clapper and Mrs.
W. L. Canada, of this county. The funeral will be held at the home Tuesday by Rev. Cobb after which interment will be made in the Mexico City Cemetery.

Farber, 2:30 p. m.
Ladonia, 7:30 p. m.

He will discuss the political economy of local option against the saloon.
The saloon, a wealth destroyer, not a producer.

Local option sense is money sense.
Local option will increase taxable resources.

"Prohibition won't prohibit"—a stock argument of the saloons and their wet friends.

Answered by confessions from the mouths of liquor men, particularly the great brewers.

"Local option kills trade," "saloons draw trade"—another stock argument of the saloons and their wet friends.
Answered by an appeal to history, to the actual course of history, etc., etc.

Thirteenth Birthday Celebrated.
Miss Ethel and Olin Baker assembled a number of friends, Saturday evening, to make a pleasant birthday surprise for their mother, Mrs. John F. Baker who was fifty-two years old, and who later assured the guests that their efforts to surprise her had been very successful. This was Mrs. Baker's thirteenth birthday, she having been born on leap year.

A variety of games were played, then an appetizing lunch closed the day's pleasure. Miss Alice Dean presided over the punch bowl. Mrs. D. W. Butler served hot chocolate, while Miss Gordon Emerson served very delicious ice-cream and cake. The guest of the day were Mrs. M. D. W. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. D. Miller, Mr. and Mrs.
E. James, Mr. and Mrs. J. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. J. Murphy, Mr. and tion by the State Inspectors of Public Schools—Give Five More Points in the University.

L. G. Hall, Assistant State Superintendent of Public Schools, was in Mexico, Friday, Mr. Hall is especially interested in the improvement of Mexico Schools, and in securing their closer articulation with the high schools of the state.

Mr. Hall was well pleased with the conditions of the Mexico School and states that the McMillan High School is one of the best regulated schools in the state.

Prior to Mr. Hall's visit Prof. Ellis of Columbia, inspected the curriculum of this high school and allowed it five points more in the State University.

This is speaking in terms of high praise for the management of the Mexico schools under its able and most efficient superintendent, L. R.

PARTIALLY DE-STROYED BY FIRE.
The Residence of Mrs. J. D. Tucker Damaged $2500 Sunday Night—Origin of Fire Thought to Have Been Caused by Mice—Started in a Pantry.
The residence of Mrs. J. D. Tucker was partially destroyed by fire Sunday night. The fire is thought to have originated in a pantry and was probably caused from the igniting of a match by the mice.
The fire was discovered by the occupants of the house about one o'clock and an alarm was immediately turned in. The fire company responded promptly and the fire which had gained much headway was extinguished only after several hundred dollars damage had been done.
The damage from both the fire and water amounts to about $2,000 on the house and $500 on the furniture, fully covered by insurance. The insurance on the house was $3,000 and on the furniture $1,000.
